Selection Criteria

The Hana Lima Scholarship is a need-based vocational education scholarship with preference given to non-traditional students: single parents, disabled (meets ADA definition), houseless, sole-income providers, previously incarcerated and wards of the court. *

Students pursuing a major in Liberal Arts do not qualify for this award as this scholarship supports students who have declared and are committed to a specific program of study.

Scholarship offerings are subject to availability of funds.*

Hana Lima Scholarship Program

Our Mission

To kōkua native Hawaiians who are committed to achieving their potential for themselves, their families, and communities.

*E alu like mai kākou, e nā ‘ōiwi o Hawai‘i
Let Us Work Together, Natives of Hawai‘i*

“Nānā ka maka; hana ka lima.” “Observe with the eyes; work with the hands.” (Puku‘i, 2267)

Purpose

The purpose of the Hana Lima Scholarship is to give financial assistance to students participating in a vocational or technical education program for occupations that can provide a “living wage” in a specific segment of employment. This $1,500 scholarship gives financial assistance toward tuition and fees, books and other required tools or uniforms for a vocational program.

Eligibility

As an applicant, you must meet the following criteria:

- Be of Native Hawaiian ancestry
- Be a resident of the state of Hawai‘i
- Be enrolled at least half time in a vocational degree or certification program in one of the educational institutions in Hawai‘i listed on our application
- Maintain a 2.0 or higher grade point average (GPA)

Please refer to the first page of the Hana Lima Scholarship application for the complete list of requirements.

Hana Lima Scholarship recipients speak out:

“The (Hana Lima Scholarship) forms were clear, concise and simple to complete. Once having met the program’s requirements, the process was also very simple. I appreciate the continued support of the Hana Lima Scholarship Program.”
Terry Thompson,
Leward Community College Teaching Program

“Unfortunately after I lost my job of 10 years with Aloha Airlines, I was rather distraught. Assisting me with my education was a lifesaver. Thank you so very much.”
Tiara Perkins, Kapiolani Community College Information Technology Program

“The Hana Lima Scholarship Program is wonderful because it helps single parents like myself, who are on a very tight budget, be successful by providing financial assistance for education.”
Kristi Oshiro, Heald College Business Administration Program
